

Allied Health

Studio Collective

The Allied Health Studio Collective is a multidisciplinary allied health team of like-minded clinicians who provide neuro-affirming, strengths-based services for children, adolescents and adults

Supporting clients across Melbourne since 2003, you might know us by our former name, The Social Learning Studio.

What we stand for:

- Our work is evidence-based
- We adopt a neuro-affirming, inclusive, strengths-based approach to help individuals to achieve their goals
- We love a creative application of evidence-based practice
- Collaborative practice – clinicians working together, alongside families, schools and other key stakeholders to support clients
- Our practice and decision making is guided by upholding strong ethical principles

Who do we support:

Children of primary school, adolescents and adults.

Our services include:

- assessment and diagnosis
- counselling and intervention
- In-clinic, in-school and virtual sessions
- Group programs
- Medicare rebates (MHCP or EPC)
- NDIS Self/Plan Managed allied health services

Our team include:

- Psychologists
- Speech Pathologists
- Occupational Therapists
- Mental Health Social Workers
- Therapy Assistants

And what about schools?

- Tailored PD and Consultation
- Regular school based therapy and DIP support
- Tier 3 programs delivered by clinicians

Contact us

To work with us, please complete the referral form on our website www.ahscollective.com.au/enquire.

